Notes		15

You must register with each local authority in whose area you let property. If you own properties in more than one area, you can use the online application system to register in all authorities in one application, and this will reduce the total fee that you will have to pay.

The aim of landlord registration is to ensure that all private landlords and agents in Scotland are 'fit and proper' to be letting residential property (Note 1). The owner of every let property must register, and must declare anyone who acts for them in relation to their letting. There are only a few exceptions from the requirement to register (Note 2). You can also register if you do not own any property, to show that you are 'fit and proper' to act as an agent, or before you invest in property for let.

Members of the public will be able to view each local authority's register of landlords online at www.landlordregistrationscotland.gov.uk. By entering the name and address of a person or company, they will be able to see whether you are registered. By entering the address of one of your properties they will be able to see your name and the contact address for you or your agent. This information can also be obtained by contacting the local authority. Local authorities can also provide the home or office address of any registered person or company, at the authority's discretion.

Further information on the legislation and your obligations as a private landlord can be found at http://www.scotborders.gov.uk/life/housingservices/private_landlords_tenants/index.html.

Notes

Note 1

To be registered, landlords and their agents must be 'fit and proper' to let residential property. Local authorities must take account of any evidence that the person has:

- Committed any offence involving fraud, dishonesty, violence or drugs
- Practised unlawful discrimination in connection with any business, contravened any provision of the law relating to housing, or landlord and tenant law and the person's actions, or failure to act, in relation to any antisocial behaviour affecting a house they let or manage.

In addition to the information provided on the form, the local authority will also take account of any other relevant information they hold about you. They will make a balanced judgement on the basis of all the available information, there is no automatic refusal.

If you let property in more than one local authority area, the authorities will share information to ensure they have all relevant details, but each authority will make its decision independently.

Note 2

Exemptions apply to properties rather than to people. If all of a landlord's properties in an area are covered by one or more of the exemptions, he or she does not need to register with that local authority. If some of his or her properties are exempt, the other properties must still be registered.

A property is exempt from registration if it is:

- The only or main residence of the landlord, where there are not more than two lodgers
- Let under an agricultural or crofting tenancy
- Occupied under a life rent
- Used for holiday lets only
- Regulated by the Care commission, in certain categories
- Owned by a religious organisation and occupied by a leader or preacher of the faith
- Occupied only by members of a religious order
- Let to members of the landlord's family only
- Is part of an estate of a deceased person and is being held by an executor
- Possessed by a heritable creditor
- Owned by a local authority or Registered Social Landlord.

If you are unsure whether an exemption applies to you, please contact the local authority for advice.

Note 3

The term 'spent or unspent' convictions may refer to the following:

- Fraud/dishonesty
- Violence
- Drugs
- Discrimination – legislation including:
 - the Equal Pay Act 1970
 - the Sex Discrimination Act 1975
 - the Race Relations Act 1976
 - the Disability Discrimination Act 1995
 - the Equality Act 2010
 - the Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003
 - the Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003

- Housing Law
- Fire arms – within the meaning of section 57 (1) of the Firearms Act 1968.
- Sexual offences – within the meaning of section 210A (10) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995.

If you are unsure whether you need to declare a conviction or court or tribunal judgement made against you, please contact your local authority for further advice.

Note 4

A Repairing Standard Enforcement Order is made under s24(2) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2006. For further information on the Private Rented Housing Panel see <http://www.prhpscotland.gov.uk/prhp/1.html>

Note 5

An Antisocial Behaviour Order (ASBO) is within the meaning of Part 2 of the Antisocial Behaviour etc (Scotland) Act 2004. For further details please see <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/asp/2004/8/part/2>

Note 6

Antisocial Behaviour Notice (ASBN) is within the meaning of Part 7 of the Antisocial Behaviour etc (Scotland) Act 2004. For further details please see <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/asp/2004/8/part/7>

Note 7

There are various types of qualification or permission to let house, which go by different names depending on the organisation which issues them, or the country where they apply. This form uses the following definitions:

Registrations or licences are required by law, and are issued by local or central government. In Scotland this applies to registration of all landlords under the Antisocial Behaviour etc (Scotland) Act 2004, and licensing of Houses in Multiple Occupation. You should also include any similar permissions you hold in other parts of the UK.

Voluntary accreditation is something landlords or agents can apply for to show that they meet high standards in letting. Accreditation schemes may be run by local authorities, landlord organisations or a combination of the two.

Note 8

A property may be a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) if:

- at least three people live there, and
- the people who live there belong to three or more families, and
- they share a kitchen, bathroom or toilet.

All HMOs must be licensed by the local authority. If you think your property may be an HMO and you do not have a licence, please contact the local authority for advice.

Note 9

Each landlord and agent applying for registration should pay a principal fee to each local authority in which they apply and, in the case of landlords, a property fee for each property listed.

Fee Structure

- Principal fee = £65 for the Lead/Sole Owner
- £15 per property.

ID No:

- £65 for a person who acts as a letting agent who has not already registered or applied separately
- 100% discount for joint owners
- 100% discount for registered charities
- Scottish Borders Council HMO licence holders do not pay a principal fee but must pay £15 for each property which does not have an HMO licence
- Consecutive online applications to two or more local authority attracts a discount on the principal fee

Following two formal notices for a valid application to be submitted a late application fee of £130.00 is applied. This fee can be charged to all applicants who would receive a 100% discount.

If you are unsure how much your fee will be please contact Housing Strategy Team, Scottish Borders Council.

Payment methods
