Quick Comment:

the proposal to the hollybush valley re-development should not be left to property developers with residents views ignored. The corridor between galashiels and clovenfords should be considered rather than taking (another) public amenity space away. Visitors coming to the town for the Tapestry building are more likely to visit Hollybush Valley Country Park than walk through a housing scheme to a wee token play park.

Hawick has managed to secure millions of pounds to enhance the beautiful Wilton Park, the Policies could be similar although maybe not on the same scale.

Any decision should be based on the benefit to many not the few who's only aim is profit.
