Quick Comment:

Ref. development AGALA029 Netherbarns, I consider the development of housing across the Tweed from Abbotsford to be a mistake. The reknown of our greatest novelist is worldwide and Abbotsford is a fitting and beautiful memorial to this extraordinary man. The setting is as important as the building, especially when it is as serene and striking as it is. It would be an eternal shame if were to be impaired by the proposed buildings.

I hope that the proposal is rejected.

Hugh Edwards.
