Tour of Britain – Hawick – Monday 5 September

Every year the Tour of Britain attracts some of the world's top cyclists, including Olympic, World and Commonwealth champions and the Scottish Borders has hosted successful stage starts and finishes over a number of years, including in Kelso town centre in 2019 and Hawick town centre in 2021.

Previous stages in the Scottish Borders have benefited the local economy with an economic impact of £266,110.00 whilst the economic impact on the Scottish economy was £2,502,613.00. We aim to deliver a great experience for participants, spectators and visitors in order to maximise the benefits to businesses.

What YOU can do to support the Tour of Britain

- Open your business and consider offering discounts or promotions on Monday 5 September - the town centre will likely be busy before and after the start.
- Display Tour of Britain posters on your premises (these can be downloaded from www.scotborders.gov.uk/tourofbritain)
- Take part in a window display competition with displays in the Tour of Britain colour themes (red/ white/ blue) and/or cycling theme. Hawick online Future Hawick | Facebook
