

Every September you can explore hundreds of fascinating buildings across Scotland for free. Some open up once a year, some just once in a lifetime.

This year we are celebrating what makes the Scottish Borders special, by showcasing not only the heritage, culture and places for which the region is already famous, but also some of the more unusual gems still waiting to be discovered.

This leaflet gives an overview of the events taking place in the region. For full details, accessibility information and to book your place (where required), visit our website:

If you cannot access information online and would like to book on to a specific event, please call 01835 825139 during office hours.

Doors Open Days is celebrated each September as part of European Heritage Days in Scotland. The festival is co-ordinated nationally by the Scottish Civic Trust and is supported by Historic Environment Scotland.

The Scottish Borders regional programme is co-ordinated by Scottish Borders Council Heritage & Design team, with events delivered by a range of partner organisations and individuals. There are a host of in person events across the region, as well as some online activities to enjoy from your home.
