Electoral registration, postal voting, proxy voting and polling stations

Campaigners are an essential element of a healthy democracy, and their right to put their arguments to voters should be supported and protected. It is equally important, however, to ensure that the activities of campaigners do not bring into question the integrity of the electoral process.

This Code provides a guide for campaigners, electoral administrators and police forces to what is, and is not, considered acceptable behaviour at polling stations and in the community during the lead-up to polling day.

As a guiding principle, if there is any doubt about a particular activity, campaigners should ask themselves “What would a reasonable observer think?”

More detailed guidance about electoral offences can be found in the guidance for candidates and agents, which is available at: https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/candidate-or-agent.

The Code has been sent to all registered political parties in Great Britain, and Returning Officers will draw it to the attention of all candidates and parties contesting relevant elections.

Some Returning Officers may identify the need to develop and seek agreement to specific local provisions which supplement the terms of this Code, in order to address identified local risks. Returning Officers must consult with local campaigners and the relevant national Nominating Officers as well as police forces to secure appropriate local agreement to such provisions, and should ensure that they are communicated and well-understood by campaigners locally.
Scope of this code

This code covers all those actively involved in campaigning at:

- Scottish council elections
- Scottish Parliament elections
- Referendums held under Scottish Parliament legislation
- Senedd Cymru elections
- Welsh local elections
- Referendums held under Senedd Cymru legislation

Other elections and referendums in Great Britain

This code does NOT apply to any other polls. The code of conduct for campaigners for other types of elections and referendums in Great Britain can be found here and covers:

- UK general elections
- UK parliamentary by-elections
- Local elections in England
- Local referendums in England
- Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) elections and Police Fire and Crime Commissioner (PFCC) elections in England and Wales

Meaning of the term "campaigner"

All references to campaigners in this code include:
• Candidates standing at an election, their agents and their staff and supporters

• Political party officers, members and supporters campaigning at an election

• Other people and organisations campaigning for or against a candidate, a group of candidates or a party at an election

• People and organisations campaigning for or against a particular outcome at a referendum

Compliance with this code

Any concerns that this code has been breached should be raised first with the candidate, political party or campaigner in question.

Any further concerns should be drawn to the attention of the Electoral Commission. The Commission will raise them with the relevant party or campaigner if appropriate, and will agree appropriate actions to remedy or prevent a reoccurrence of any breach.

Electoral registration and absent vote applications

Campaigners should be free to encourage voters to register to vote and apply to vote by post or appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf, if that is the most convenient way for them to vote.

Campaigners can help to inform voters about how to participate in elections. They can encourage voters to use the online electoral registration service, or they can provide voters with paper application forms. Electoral Registration Officers should support you by providing you with a reasonable number of registration and absent vote application forms on request.
Campaigners should ensure that any electoral registration forms and postal or proxy voting application forms conform fully to the requirements of electoral law, including all the necessary questions and the options open to electors.

Campaigners should ensure that the local Electoral Registration Officer’s address is clearly provided as the preferred return address.

To ensure voters can make their own choice about how to return registration, or absent vote application forms, you should always clearly provide the relevant Electoral Registration Officer’s address as the preferred return address, even if an alternative address is also given. This will also minimise the risk of suspicion that completed applications could be altered or inadvertently lost or destroyed.

Campaigners should send on unaltered any completed registration or absent vote application given to them to the relevant Electoral Registration Officer’s address within two working days of receipt.

To minimise the risk of absent vote applications being refused because completed forms arrive with the Electoral Registration Officer after the statutory deadline before a poll, you must ensure that there is no unnecessary delay in forwarding on application forms which you receive directly.

Campaigners should always explain to electors the implications of applying to vote by post or appointing a proxy.

It is important that electors understand that they will not be able to vote in person on polling day if they or their proxy apply for and are granted a postal vote, and will not be able to vote in person if their appointed proxy has already voted on their behalf. To avoid duplication and unnecessary administrative pressures for Electoral Registration Officers, campaigners should try to ensure that electors who are included in current postal or proxy voter lists, or have already applied for a postal or proxy vote for a particular poll, do not submit an additional application.

Postal vote applications

Campaigners should never encourage electors to have their postal ballot pack redirected to anywhere other than the address where they are registered to vote.

Electors should take care to protect their ballot paper and postal ballot pack, and they will be best able to do so at their home address unless there are compelling reasons why receiving the postal ballot pack at the address where they are registered to vote would be impractical. Electors must state on the application form the reason why they need their postal ballot pack sent to another address.

Proxy vote applications

Electors should be encouraged to explore other options for people to act as a proxy – including relatives or neighbours, for example – before a campaigner agrees to be appointed as a proxy.

To minimise the risk of suspicion that campaigners may be seeking to place undue pressure on electors, electors should not be encouraged to appoint a campaigner as their proxy.

Postal voting ballot papers

Campaigners should never touch or handle anyone else’s ballot paper.

If you are asked for assistance in completing a ballot paper, you should always refer the voter to the Returning Officer’s staff at the elections office who may be able to arrange a home visit if necessary. Assistance will also be available for electors at polling stations.

Campaigners should never observe voters completing their ballot paper. If you are with a voter when they complete their ballot paper, remember they should always complete it in secret.

You should ensure that the voter seals both envelopes personally and immediately after completing their ballot paper and postal voting statement. If you are asked to give advice, it is acceptable and often helpful to explain the voting process, but do not offer to help anyone to complete their ballot paper.

Campaigners should never handle or take any completed ballot paper or postal ballot packs from voters.

Wherever practical, you should encourage voters to post or deliver the completed postal ballot pack themselves. If you are approached or asked for help by a voter who is unable to post their completed postal ballot pack or make any other arrangements for it to be returned in time, you should contact the Returning Officer to ask them to arrange for it to be collected. The Returning Officer may agree that it would be in the voter’s best interest for you to deliver the completed postal ballot pack to the relevant office or polling station, if there are no feasible alternative options.

Campaigning outside polling places

Campaigners should be allowed to put their messages to voters on polling day, including in public spaces outside polling places.

Polling station staff and police officers should not seek to discourage or remove campaigners who are otherwise peacefully communicating with voters, as long as they are not within or impeding access to the grounds of the polling place. You should be careful, however, to ensure that your approach is proportionate and should recognise that groups of supporters may be perceived as intimidating by voters.

Campaigners should keep access to polling places and the pavements around polling places clear to allow voters to enter.

The Presiding Officer is responsible for maintaining order in the polling place, and you may be asked to move by polling station staff or police officers if you are impeding access by voters to a polling place.

Complaints and allegations about electoral fraud

Campaigners should be prepared to give the police a statement and substantiate any allegations of electoral fraud they make.

The police will investigate allegations where someone is prepared to provide evidence or a statement in support of the complaint, but unsubstantiated claims about electoral fraud have the potential to damage confidence in the integrity of the electoral process. You should ensure you are confident that evidence can be provided to the police.
before considering whether it is appropriate to publicise any specific allegation.

CAMPAIGNERS WHO ARE CONCERNED OR THINK THAT ELECTORAL FRAUD MAY HAVE TAKEN PLACE SHOULD RAISE THE MATTER WITH THEIR ELECTION AGENT OR LOCAL PARTY, OR WITH THE RELEVANT ELECTORAL REGISTRATION OFFICER OR RETURNING OFFICER FOR THE AREA.

They may be able to explain whether or not an election-related crime has been committed, and refer it to the police if appropriate or provide details of the police contact for the relevant area so that campaigners can report their allegation. Concerns about breaches of the political finance rules should be raised directly with the Electoral Commission.

ANY CAMPAIGNER WHO HAS ACTUAL EVIDENCE THAT AN ELECTORAL OFFENCE HAS BEEN COMMITTED SHOULD REPORT IT DIRECTLY AND WITHOUT DELAY TO THE POLICE.

If appropriate, the police will investigate the matter. Every police force has designated a Single Point of Contact (known as a SPOC) to lead on election matters and who will deal directly with the matter or give advice to local police officers. The Electoral Commission can help provide contact details for local police force SPOCs.

11. CANVASSERS

There is an absolute prohibition against the employment of paid canvassers.

12. ELECTION NOTICES

12.1 No payment can be made to an elector or a proxy for an elector for permission to exhibit any Election Notice on any house, land, building or premises.

12.2 Every bill, placard, poster or document issued by a candidate must bear upon the face of it, the name and address of the printer and publisher. This applies not only to printed materials but also includes all non-printed campaign material, including websites or social media.

12.3 This Council does not allow the display of any election notices on Council owned property, lamp posts etc. Any Notices found on Council property will be removed and the cost of such removal charged to the party/person responsible.

13. CORRUPT PRACTICES

At any local government election, a person shall be guilty of a corrupt practice if he or she is guilty of bribery, treating or undue influence. A person is guilty of treating if he or she pays, either in whole or in part, the expenses of giving or providing any meat, drink, entertainment or provision to any person for the purpose of influencing that person’s vote.

14. POSTAL VOTES

14.1 The issue of Postal Ballot Papers is expected to take place on 12 February 2024. These are issued directly from our printers and there is no entitlement for candidates or their agents to be present.

14.2 Postal Votes will be opened at Council Headquarters, Newtown St. Boswells on Thursday, 22 February 2024. In addition to his/her election agent each candidate may appoint one agent to attend. The appointment should be intimated in writing to the Returning Officer before the time of the first opening on Thursday, 22 February 2024.

15. POLLING AGENTS

Candidates may appoint Polling Agents to attend at polling stations for the purpose of detecting personation. Any number of Agents may be appointed, but only one may be in a polling station at any time. Forms of appointment are enclosed and should be returned to the Returning Officer by Thursday, 15 February 2024.
Polling Agents should be advised that Polling Staff will be instructed not to allow any Agent access to a polling station if they do not have with them the card issued by the Returning Officer.

16. HOURS OF POLL
The hours of poll are from 7.00 a.m. to 10.00p.m. on Thursday, 22 February 2024.

17. CONVEYANCE OF VOTERS
17.1 A person must not let, lend for the conveyance of electors or their proxies to or from the Poll any public stage or hackney carriage or any carriage kept or used for the purpose of letting out for hire. Candidates or their election agents must not make any payment either before, during or after the Election, on account of the conveyance of voters or their proxies to or from the Poll whether for the hire of carriages or for ‘bus fares’ or otherwise. It is not necessary for a licence to be taken out in respect of any carriage used without payment or promise of a payment, for the conveyance of voters or their proxies to or from the Poll.

17.2 The prohibitions against the hire of a carriage do not prevent an elector, or several electors jointly from hiring any vehicle to take them to the Poll.

18. COUNTING OF VOTES
18.1 Ballot Boxes will be delivered from the various polling places to Council Headquarters, Newtown St. Boswells at the close of poll where they will be securely stored overnight without being opened. The actual counting of the ballot papers will commence in Council Headquarters, Newtown St. Boswells on Friday, 23 February 2024 commencing at 10.00 a.m.. The votes will be counted electronically and further information regarding this process will be issued in due course.

18.2 Candidates may appoint Counting Agents to attend the counting of votes, but this will be subject to a maximum for each candidate which will be determined by the Returning Officer, having regard to the number of candidates. Forms of appointment for Counting Agents will be issued in due course.

19. POLLLING PROCEDURES – GENERAL
19.1 For the purposes of these notes:-

   “polling place” = any school, hall or other building used for polling, the grounds of and any buildings ancillary to such school, hall or other building, and the walls, railings or fences surrounding such school, hall or other building.

   “polling station” = the room or hall in a polling place where polling takes place.

19.2 In terms of Rule 28 of the Scottish Local Government Elections Rules 2011, only the following may be admitted to a polling station:-

   (i) voters;
   (ii) persons under the age of 16 who accompany voters to the polling station;
   (iii) the candidates (in that ward) and their election agents;
   (iv) polling agents appointed to attend at the polling station;
   (v) police officers on duty;
   (vi) companions of voters with disabilities;
   (vii) the Returning Officer and the Returning Officer’s staff; and (viii) persons entitled to attend in accordance with Sections 6A to 6D of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000.

19.3 Election Agents and Polling Agents are reminded that they must have the appropriate admission card, otherwise admission will not be granted.

(i) The offering of literature or any attempt by whatever means to influence voters as to how they cast their votes WITHIN A POLLING PLACE IS STRICTLY FORBIDDEN.

(ii) Poll cards are the property of voters. They are not required to surrender them to agents and must not be pressurised to do so. Any cards surrendered to Presiding Officers will be destroyed forthwith.

19.4 Tellers

(i) Tellers must not give the impression that they are employed by the Returning Officer. They should concern themselves ONLY with checking who has voted. THEY MUST NOT ASK VOTERS WHO THEY INTEND TO VOTE FOR OR HOW THEY HAVE VOTED.

(ii) VOTERS MUST NOT BE APPROACHED UNTIL AFTER THEY HAVE LEFT THE POLLING STATION.

(iii) The usual means of telling is to ask voters for the poll card. If a voter does not have a poll card and does not know his or her electoral number, tellers may ask the voter’s name and address but must not give the impression that the information must be provided for official purposes; IF THE VOTER REFUSES HE OR SHE MUST NOT BE PRESSED. Voters must not be asked to re-enter the polling station to ascertain their electoral number. TELLERS MUST NOT IN ANY WAY IMPEDE OR OBSTRUCT VOTERS ON THEIR WAY INTO OR OUT OF THE POLLING STATION OR THE BUILDING IN WHICH IT IS SITUATED.

(iv) Tellers are only permitted inside a building in which a polling station is situated AT THE CHIEF PRESIDING OFFICER’S DISCRETION. They are not permitted, as tellers, to enter a polling station. Tellers must respect the Chief Presiding Officer’s decision as to their location. Since that decision will be based in part on ensuring that access for voters is not obstructed, it is likely to vary from polling place to polling place.

19.5 The fixing of bills to any part of a polling place, i.e. walls, railings, fences, etc. is not allowed. Bills will normally be allowed on the pavements outside a polling place provided that they are positioned so as not to cause any obstruction to pedestrian or vehicular traffic. Any question of obstructions will be wholly within the jurisdiction of the Police.

19.6 Rosettes may be worn within a polling place provided they are discreet.

19.7 Cars displaying election material are not normally allowed within the polling place grounds. Such cars, however, which bring disabled or infirm persons to the poll, may, where local conditions permit, be allowed to bring those persons to the door of the polling place. In such circumstances the cars should not wait in a conspicuous place while the persons are voting and should leave the polling place without delay as soon as the persons have voted.

19.8 While there is no specific entitlement to Candidates or Agents being informed of the number of persons who have voted, it will normally be possible for Presiding Officers to give Candidates or Agents a note of the actual number of persons who have voted from time to time throughout the day. Information as to whether or not a particular person has or has not voted shall not be given. The Presiding Officers shall ensure that meeting these requests does not interfere with their official duties.

20. ACCESS TO ELECTED OFFICE FUND
This Fund pays for practical support to allow disabled people to fully participate in the electoral process by covering reasonable adjustments that level the playing field between disabled and non-disabled candidates. It does not cover general campaign costs. The Access to Elected Officer Fund (Scotland) is funded by the Scottish Government and administered by Inclusion Scotland. Access to Elected Office Fund - Inclusion Scotland Applicants do not need to have been selected by a political party yet and can also be independent candidates to apply for the Fund. Further information can be found by contacting the Civic Participation Team at Inclusion Scotland, civicparticipation@inclusionscotland.org

21. CANDIDATES’ BRIEFINGS/INFORMATION PACK
Once the nominated candidates for the election are known (on 22 January 2024) briefings will be arranged for candidates and agents. These will give further details of the election process, including the count.

22. FURTHER INFORMATION
The Returning Officer will be pleased to provide any further information required by the candidates.

(6) The members of the Commission may, on imposing a suspension under subsection (1)(b) or (c) above on a member of a devolved public body, direct that any remuneration or allowance deriving from membership of the body that would be payable to the member be not paid or be reduced as they direct.

(7) The powers to remove and disqualify a person from membership of a devolved public body under subsections (4) and (5)(b) above are exercisable as respects that body only after the members' code applicable to that body first has effect.

(8) The Commission shall, after consulting such association of local authorities and any such other bodies or persons as it thinks fit, issue guidance to councils on the extent to which a councillor should engage in activities (other than those mentioned in subsection (1)(c) above) which are, or may be perceived to be, the activities of a councillor during a period of suspension.

Overview:

To help administer elections on behalf of the appointed Returning Officer, we need to collect, store, use, share and dispose of personal information. This is known as data processing.

In processing personal information, the Scottish Borders Council must comply with data protection legislation.

When we collect personal data, we must tell you why we need it, and what we will do with it. This information is called a privacy notice.

This privacy notice explains how we process your personal information as a Council.

Who we are:

The Scottish Borders Council is a local authority established under the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994.

Its head office is located at:

Council Headquarters, Newtown St Boswells, Melrose, TD6 0SA

You can contact our Data Protection Officer by post at this address, by email at: dataprotection@scotborders.gov.uk or telephone 0300 100 1800

Why do we need your personal information and what do we do with it?

You are giving us your personal information to allow the Returning Officer to register you as a candidate, agent or campaigner for a forthcoming election or referendum. We also use your information to verify your identity where required, contact you by post, email or telephone and to maintain our records.

Legal basis for using your information:

We are registering you on behalf of the appointed Returning Officer for this area. You can find more details of our role on our website at http://www.scotborders.gov.uk/info/20060/access_to_information/877/privacy_statement and https://www.scotborders.gov.uk/info/20057/elections_and_voting

Processing your personal information is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller. If you do not provide us with the information we have asked for then we will not be able to provide this service to you.

We will not use or share your information for marketing purposes, unless we ask for, and you specifically give us, permission to do so.
Who do we share your information with?

To provide you with efficient services, we will sometimes share your personal information between teams within the Council, and with external partners and agencies involved in delivering services on our behalf.

The Council may also provide personal information to third parties, but only where it is necessary, either to comply with the law or where permitted under data protection legislation.

We are legally obliged to share certain data with other public bodies, such as HMRC and will do so where the law requires this. We are also legally obliged to safeguard public funds so we are required to verify and check your details internally for fraud prevention. We may share this information with other public bodies (and also receive information from these other bodies) for fraud checking purposes.

We will also generally comply with requests for specific information from other regulatory and law enforcement bodies where this is necessary and proportionate.

We will only share your information with partners or suppliers who have sufficient measures and procedures in place to protect your information and can meet their legal obligations under data protection legislation.

How long do we keep your information for?

We only keep your personal information for the minimum amount of time necessary. Sometimes this time period is set out in the law, but in most cases it is based on the business need.

The Councils Record Retention schedule sets out the retention periods that apply to records for the various elections that we administer.

Your rights under data protection law:

Under data protection legislation you have certain rights which are set out below.

- The right to be informed about how we collect and use your personal information through privacy notices such as this.
- The right to request information we hold about you. This is known as a subject access request and is free of charge. We must respond within one month, although this can be extended to three months if the information is complex.
- The right to rectification. You are entitled to have your information rectified if it is factually inaccurate or incomplete. We must respond to your request within one month. If we decide to take no action, we will tell you why and let you know about your right of complaint to the UK Information Commissioner.
- The right to erasure. You have the right to ask us to delete your information or stop using it. It will not always be possible for us to comply with your request, for example if we have a legal obligation to keep the information. If we decide to take no action, we will tell you why and let you know about your right of complaint to the UK Information Commissioner.

- The right to restrict processing. You have the right to restrict how your data is processed in certain circumstances, for example if the information is not accurate. If a restriction is applied, we can retain just enough information to ensure that the restriction is respected in future. If we decide to lift a restriction on processing we must tell you.

- The right to data portability. If we are processing your personal data with your consent, and it is held in a structured, commonly used, machine readable form, you have a right to ask us to transmit it to another data controller so they can use it. This right does not apply if we process your personal data as part of our public task.

- The right to object. You can object to your information being used for profiling, direct marketing or research purposes.

You have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, to reduce the risk that a potentially damaging decision is taken without human intervention.

To make a subject access request, or to exercise any of your rights, please contact the Information Rights Team at:

Scottish Borders Council, Council Headquarters, Newtown St Boswells, Melrose, TD6 0SA

Information you have given us about other people
