3. Section 41 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 states as follows:
 - (1) A licence, to be known as a "public entertainment licence", shall be required for the use of premises as a place of public entertainment.
 - (2) In this section, "place of public entertainment" means any place where members of the public are admitted or may use any facilities for the purposes of entertainment or recreation but does not include:
 - (a) an athletic or sports ground while being used as such;
 - (b) an educational establishment while being used as such;
 - (c) premises belonging to or occupied by any religious body while being used wholly or mainly for purposes connected with that body;
 - (d) premises licensed under the Theatres Act 1968, the Cinematograph Act 1909 or Part 11 of the Gaming Act 1968;
 - (e) licensed premises within the meaning of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 in which public entertainment is being provided during the permitted hours within the meaning of that Act; or
 - (f) premises in which machines for entertainment or amusement are being provided incidentally to the main purpose or use of the premises where that main purpose or use is not as a place of public entertainment.
 - (3) Without prejudice to paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 to this Act, a licensing authority may attach conditions to a public entertainment licence:
 - (a) restricting the use of the premises to a specified kind or specified kinds of entertainment or recreation;
 - (b) limiting the number of persons to be admitted to the premises;
 - (c) fixing the days and times when the premises may be open for the purposes of the entertainment or recreation.

In this section, "educational establishment" has the meaning given by paragraphs (i) and (ii) of the definition of that expression in section 135(1) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 but includes a university and a theological college.
4. The types of event or classes of premises which require to be licensed as places of public entertainment are billiard, snooker and pool halls; circuses, concerts and concert halls; dance or mime performances; dance halls and discotheques; exhibitions; fireworks displays; funfairs; gymnasia; health clubs; ice rinks; laser displays; massage parlours; motor vehicle tracks or courses; paint ball games; pop concerts; raves; saunas; ten-pin bowling and indoor bowling centres; variety or musical shows; and video machine arcades.
