STREET TRADER LICENSING

NOTES FOR APPLICANTS

1. Please complete the form in typescript or black ink for ease of photocopying.
2. Each application should be accompanied by the fee payable of £290 or £111 for a temporary licence application together with 4 passport sized photographs showing a true likeness of the applicant.
3. Employees or Agents acting as a street trader each require individual licences.
4. Applications from persons aged under 17 will only be considered in cases where the applicants:
 - (a) are to be employed in street trading by their parents; and
 - (b) in that event, the employing street trader will be bound to ensure that all relevant legislation and local bye-laws relating to the employment of children are complied with.
5.
 - (a) If the proposed trading includes food business, this application shall suffice as an application for a Certificate of Compliance with any relevant regulations made under Section 16 and 17 of the Food Safety Act 1990 in respect of any vehicle, kiosk or mobile stall to be used.
 - (b) Where you propose to trade in goods or articles of a perishable nature or which are intended for human consumption, and these goods or articles are to be stored in premises outwith the Scottish Borders when not being offered for sale, you must apply for and meet the cost of obtaining a certificate of approval from the Environmental Health Authority for the area in which the goods or articles are to be stored and exhibit or deliver this to the Scottish Borders Council before your licence application can be considered.
6. If your street trading is to be carried on wholly or mainly in premises, (the definition of which includes land), unless your application is for a temporary licence for up to 6 weeks, you must display a site notice, at or near the premises, in a place where this can be conveniently read by the public, for a period of 21 days beginning with the date when you submit this application to the Council. Please use the attached style of notice.

At the end of the 21 day period, the attached certificate must be completed and returned to the Council.

7. The Licensee shall not operate in any car park, lay-by, public park, grass area or open space belonging to or maintained by a local authority without the prior written permission of the said local authority. The licensee shall not operate in any trunk road lay-by without the prior written consent of The Transport Department, The Scottish Government, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ.
8. Section 39 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 states as follows:
 - (1) Subject to subsection (3) below, a licence, to be known as a "street trader licence", shall be required for street trading by a person, whether on his own account or as an employee.

- (2) In this section “ street trading” means doing any of the following things in a public place:
- (a) hawking, selling or offering or exposing for sale any article;
 - (b) offering to carry out or carrying out for money’s worth any service,

To any person in the public place and includes doing any of these things there in or from a vehicle or in or from a kiosk or moveable stall not entered in the valuation roll except where it is done in conjunction with or as part of a retail business being carried on in premises abutting the public place.

- (3) A street trader licence shall not be required for:
- (a) the sale of newspapers only;
 - (b) the sale of milk by or on behalf of a person registered under section 7 of the Milk and Dairies (Scotland) Act 1914;
 - (c) the sale of coal, coke or any solid fuel derived from coal or of which coal or coke is a constituent;
 - (d) any activity in respect of which a certificate under the Pedlars Act 1871 has been granted;
 - (e) any activity in respect of which a licence is required under this Act apart from this section; or
 - (f) organising or participating in a public charitable collection within the meaning of subsection (16) of section 119 of this Act in accordance with permission granted under that section.
- (4) Where an application for a street trader licence is made in respect of an activity which:
- (a) consists of or includes food business within the meaning of regulations made under sections 13 and 56 of the Food and Drugs (Scotland) Act 1956; and
 - (b) involves the use of a vehicle, kiosk or moveable stall,

The licensing authority shall, without prejudice to paragraph 5(3) of Schedule 1 to this Act, refuse the application unless there is produced to them a certificate by the islands or district council stating that the vehicle, kiosk or moveable stall complies with the requirements of any relevant regulations made under sections 13 and 56 of the Food and Drugs (Scotland) Act 1956.

9. If it is intended to use a public park or open space, consent will be required from the local authority (PLACEBookings@scotborders.gov.uk), as well as compliance with the terms and conditions of use
