The Borders Macmillan Welfare Benefits Partnership offers a free, confidential and impartial advice service for people and their families living or affected by cancer.

We can help you:

- with advice on current and future benefit entitlements
- to apply for social security benefits and tax credits
- to appeal against benefit decisions
- to access charitable grants
- to access help with costs such as travel to hospital
- to apply for transport concessions such as the Blue Badge

We are able to offer guidance to people affected by cancer on:

- Power of Attorney
- Making a Will
- Future planning for a funeral

How to access the Borders Macmillan Welfare Benefits Partnership:

We are open on Monday to Thursday 8.45a.m. to 5p.m. and Friday 8.45a.m. to 3.45p.m.
