Salmon Viewing Visitor Centre Philiphaugh by Selkirk

This Wildlife Information Visitor Centre is accessible with video of salmon, other river fish and other wildlife. There is also some audio information available.

How to get there: from Selkirk take the Moffat Road for a mile or so and turn into Philiphaugh Farm. There is a car park at Philiphaugh Farm near to the visitor centre. There are some paths that are low level but rough that lead to viewing area for salmon ladder and riverside paths.

1. From the end of the car park turn right to follow the riverside path downstream a short distance to a bridge.
2. Cross the river and go through a small gate to the riverside woodland area. This is a mainly level path, with some slightly narrow sections and one short steep section.
3. Cross the ramped bridge across the river.
4. Return to the car park through the riverside park areas with bench seats and views.
